Hello everyone!

We hope everyone is enjoying the Texas fall weather as October is winding down. Here are some exciting pieces of news and events upcoming:

- The TAMU Title IX officer will be visiting on Tue, Oct 31st at 9 a.m. in the seminar room to provide an overview (and update) of procedures we need to be aware of and follow. No tricks - there will be tasty treats at the presentation. Everyone in the building is strongly encouraged to attend!
- Mark your calendars for the Cyclotron Holiday party on the evening of Fri, Dec 15th - more details to follow!
- Starting November 1st is Native American Heritage Month. To learn more about conversations and events in regard to indigenous American identities and cultures, please visit the Library of Congress website: <https://nativeamericanheritagemonth.gov/>
- From October to December, the University of Texas A&M is hosting the 4 Seasons | 5 Senses art exhibit in Forsyth Galleries MSC 2428. Step into a world of wonder as this art exhibit takes you on a journey through all four seasons, evoking the full range of emotions and senses that come with each season!

If you have any thoughts or ideas that would help make the CI a better place, please let one of us know in person, via email, or anonymously at our physical or digital suggestion boxes!
